

Are You in Need of: Housing, Food, Clothing, or Connections to Services, etc?

Trinity Family Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

If you are in need of help with housing, food, clothing, or connection to services, we are here to help you in strict confidence. We are now serving the areas of Marion, Tigerton, Wittenberg, and small surrounding communities.

There are many organizations in your area that are ready and willing to help you.

We can help you find those and work with you to secure the help you need.

If you don't know where to turn, we may be able to help you in times of need for: rent, housing, food, and utilities; the basic essentials of life.

Our goal is to help you –People Helping People.

Trinity Family Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul happily serves YOU!
